

Privacy Policy

Romeo V Alvarez built the action app Therapeutic Words to be used in the Google Assistant as an Ad Supported app.

This page is used to inform users regarding my policies with the collection, use, and disclosure of Personal Information if anyone uses my action app in Google Assistant.

The terms used in this Privacy Policy have the same meanings as in our Terms and Conditions, which is accessible at Therapeutic Words unless otherwise defined in this Privacy Policy.

Information Collection and Use

I built Therapeutic Words as an action running in the Google Assistant for users to engage in a conversation to hear God's comforting words from the Bible. In the course of the conversation with the user, not even an iota of data is extracted.

However, the action app does use third party services that may collect information used to identify you.
